

1(a) $O(\log E)$

1(b) $O(\log V)$

2. I think we only find a graph fail both of the algorithm and produce wrong MST if the graph are unconnected graph. If all the vertexes connect to at least one vertex like we taught in class, it will always produce the correct MST.